

Contribute to VOICES OF JUSTICE

a Creative Writing feature of Multicultural Education Magazine

Multicultural Education is seeking submissions of creative expression that provide knowledge and insight through a variety of lenses, including but not limited to educational equity and teaching, social justice, youth empowerment, a people's history, decolonization, restorative justice, and environmental/climate justice. We welcome considerations of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, economics, language, (dis)ability, displacement, resistance, solidarity, and more. Do you write poetry? Short stories or flash fiction? Hybrid styles? We will consider any style or form that can be reproduced in print, however we prefer prose that does not exceed 750 words and poetry that can fit comfortably on a single page.

If you are an educator, scholar-activist, or teacher consider sharing your work with Multicultural Education's VOICES OF JUSTICE and encourage your students to do the same!
We are looking for informal as well as scholarly expression.

Submissions will be reviewed on a rolling basis.
VOICES OF JUSTICE will appear as a periodic feature.
